

RICHARD BONG STATE RECREATION AREA

November Events

Saturday
November
8
10 a.m.-12 p.m.

SEED PAPER MAKING

Meet at the Visitor Center for a seasonal craft! Work with our volunteer Master Gardener, Melody Orban to create special paper that can be planted!

Thursday
November
13
10-11:30 a.m.

KNEE HIGH NATURALIST: GETTING READY FOR WINTER

Bring your 3-5 year old and family to Shelter 1 for a unique program focused on exploring the outdoors with some of our youngest nature enthusiasts! Enjoy a story, craft, and hike! This month we will learn how animals get ready for the winter!

Saturday
November
15
10-11:30 a.m.

FALL SEED SCATTER

This seasonal craft and hike is perfect for all ages! We will start by studying native seeds while creating seed balls to scatter. Then we will head out on hike and spread seeds as we go! Be prepared to get a bit dirty! Meet at the Visitor Center.

Sunday
November
23
1-2 p.m.

SCHLITZ AUDUBON: EAGLE & FRIENDS

Meet live birds of prey and learn about the unique adaptations that make these creatures special! This program will meet in the Visitor Center Auditorium.

Saturday
December
6

WINTER GREENERY CRAFT CLASSES

Create a special seasonal decoration with greenery collected from the park. You must pre-register for this event. Space is limited. Meet at the Volunteer Workshop, North of HW 142.

Thursday
January
1

FIRST DAY HIKE

Meet at Shelter 1 and ring in the new year with a celebratory annual hike around the green trail. Concessions provided by the Bong Naturalist Association.

Saturday
February
7

RETURN TO ROMANCE CANDLELIGHT HIKE

Details coming soon.

For more information email Emily.Cole@wisconsin.gov, call 262-878-5601 or stop at the park office. You can also find more events by scanning this QR code.

A special THANK YOU to the INSERT NAME OF FRIEND GROUP for sponsoring the naturalist programs!

OutWiGo

dnr.wi.gov